SPRING HILL COLLEGE

Mobile, Alabama

Spring Hill College is ranked once again in the top 20 Southern universities and colleges, according to the 2012 edition of U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges."

Spring Hill is ranked 17th among the Southern colleges and universities offering a full range of undergraduate majors and master's programs. The U.S. News rankings are based on several quality measures including academic reputation, graduation and retention rates, faculty resources, student selectivity, peer assessment and graduation rate performance. Colleges and universities are listed in various categories depending on their size, location and other factors.

The college is ranked 10th among only 15 schools listed in the South's "Great Schools, Great Prices" category, colleges that offer quality academic programs, affordable tuition and significant financial aid.

Spring Hill College is also listed in the region's "A-Plus Schools for B Students" category, campuses where B students thrive in an engaged student body.

Forbes Magazine also ranks Spring Hill among its "America's Best Colleges" with SHC ranked No. 32 in the nation among similar institutions.

Forbes also ranks Spring Hill among the "Best Colleges in the South" and among the top 25 percent of the "Best Private Colleges" nationwide according to Forbes.

SPIRIT COORDINATOR

CARRIE CLAYTON

Carrie Clayton joined the SHC family as the school's Spirit Program Coordinator with responsibilities over the Badger Cheer and Dance programs in September 2014. Before taking over the Spring Hill Spirit Programs, Clayton served as an assistant coach for the Badger dance program for one and a half years.

Clayton was an assistant coach with the University of South Alabama (USA) Prowlers Dance Team for four years after having danced for the Prowlers while in college. She also served as the Dance Team coach at both Dawes Intermediate School and UMS-Wright Preparatory School in Mobile.

A staff member of the Universal Dance Association (UDA), Clayton has traveled across the country as a dance instructor while working behind the scenes at numerous national and state dance competitions. She began her professional career as a Childcare Assistant with Penelope House in 2007 after graduating from USA with a B.S. in Speech and Hearing Sciences in 2010.

ASSISTANT SPIRIT COORDINATOR

CHANCE BROUGHTON

Chance Broughton joined the SHC staff in 2014 after serving as a UCA staff member for eight years. During his time on staff he taught high school, all-star and college camps as well as worked various events across the United States and London. He is a former Assistant Coach of Faulkner State Community College. He has been coaching tumbling/competitive cheerleading for 19 years. In addition, his award winning choreography has been seen across the nation for over 13 years.

PREVIEW 2015

The Spring Hill College Cheer and Dance teams begin a pivotal year in 2015. Carrie Clayton returns as the Spirit Program Coordinator in her third year with the Badgers and she believes the teams are, "building a program ... and the hard work that's put in is what it's all about."

This year the team has added four male cheerleaders, which include freshman Elliot "Gus" Andrews from Cullman, Ala., juniors Jacob Campos from Covington, La., and Connor Wilkins from Pelham, Ala., along with senior Ian Garrison from Mobile. Clayton says the male cheerleaders, "make our stunt sequences more dynamic and allow us to do more difficult stunts because of the strength they provide. Also, the males encourage the team and it's very positive."

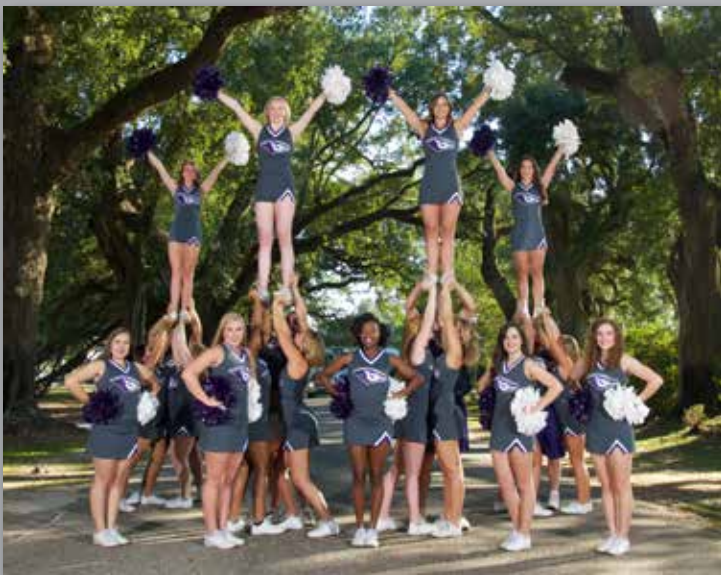

The cheer team added four new recruits in the offseason. "There is a lot of talent in the new recruits," says Clayton. "We have gained a new flyer in Ashley Zamudio from Mobile along with a strong tumbler in Julie Dobbs from Mobile. Kori Wilbourn from Daphne, Ala., is an experienced base who will help us improve and Randi Evans from Semmes, Ala., is a versatile athlete who can be both a flyer and tumbler. I think the new talent has pushed the returners to work harder."

The dance team welcomes three new recruits. Clayton says the goals for the year includes the team "performing to the best of their ability and also to add enough members by next year to compete at Nationals." The new recruits strengthen the team. The newcomers include Alyssa Miles from Ft. Walton Beach, Fla., Hannah Mueller from St. Louis, Mo., and Camryn Nethken from Prairieville, La.

Returners to the dance team include sophomore Allie May from Eureka, Mo., juniors Ashley Cooper, of Mobile, Darian Price from Carencro, La., and Channi Zirlott of Irvington, Ala., along with senior Lillian Loys from Miami, Fla.

The cheer team has 12 returners including senior Paige Hymel from Slidell, La., along with juniors Shakara Austin from Gulfport, Miss., Morgan Lee from Grand Bay, Ala., Rebeca Marroquin from Hattiesburg, Miss., Taylor Moss from Grand Bay, Ala., and Jasmin Pizer from Baton Rouge, La. The six returning sophomores include Emma Gross from Marietta, Ga., Holly Hubenak from Austin, Texas, Madeline Limber from Dallas, Texas, Maegan Lynch from Citronelle, Ala., Summer Soltis from Cleveland, Ohio, and Paige Spivey from Semmes, Ala.

The cheer team will travel to the Universal Cheerleaders Association (UCA) College Nationals championship in January. Clayton says her goal for the team is to make it the finals. Clayton says she's most excited about, "seeing the teams at basketball games. They've gone to camp for the first time and basketball is their true element where they get to perform." The teams will get their first opportunity to shine on Friday, November 13, when the Badger men's basketball opens the season at home versus Shorter University at 7 p.m. in the Arthur R. Outlaw Recreation Center.
