SPRING HILL COLLEGE

Mobile, Alabama

Spring Hill College is ranked once again in the top 20 Southern universities and colleges, according to the 2012 edition of U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges."

Spring Hill is ranked 17th among the Southern colleges and universities offering a full range of undergraduate majors and master's programs. The U.S. News rankings are based on several quality measures including academic reputation, graduation and retention rates, faculty resources, student selectivity, peer assessment and graduation rate performance. Colleges and universities are listed in various categories depending on their size, location and other factors.

The college is ranked 10th among only 15 schools listed in the South's "Great Schools, Great Prices" category, colleges that offer quality academic programs, affordable tuition and significant financial aid.

Spring Hill College is also listed in the region's "A-Plus Schools for B Students" category, campuses where B students thrive in an engaged student body.

Forbes Magazine also ranks Spring Hill among its "America's Best Colleges" with SHC ranked No. 32 in the nation among similar institutions.

Forbes also ranks Spring Hill among the "Best Colleges in the South" and among the top 25 percent of the "Best Private Colleges" nationwide according to Forbes.

HEAD COACH

KRISTIN HOSKINSON

Kristin Hoskinson begins her second year as the SHC Senior Woman Administrator and head coach of cheerleading & dance in 2013. She came to Spring Hill from Ohio University in Athens, Ohio, where she served as head coach of cheerleading and mascot from 2010-2012. In addition to her duties with the cheer and dance teams, Hoskinson also serves as the Senior Woman Administrator for SHC Athletics.

With 11 years of competitive cheerleading and teaching experience at all levels and 17 years of competitive dance experience, Hoskinson directs the Badgers' sideline and competitive cheerleading programs along with the school's dance team and mascot.

A native of Newark, Ohio, Hoskinson received her Bachelor of Specialized Studies in Marketing-Communications from Ohio in 2006. As an undergraduate, she was a four-year member of the Ohio cheerleading team and team captain during the 2005-06 season. She remained in Athens for the 2006-07 season as the assistant cheerleading coach and was a vital part of the Bobcat squad that placed in the top 20 at the Universal Cheerleaders Association (UCA) College Nationals in Orlando, Fla.

Hoskinson worked for two years at the Memphis, Tenn., headquarters of UCA where she was Northeast Regional Sales Manager. In 2007, she changed roles to Northeast Assistant Regional Manager and Assistant to the Vice President of Staff Development. Hoskinson also helped with Curriculum for UCA and served as a judge for entry tapes of UCA College National Championships.

While coaching at Ohio, Hoskinson also worked full-time as Customer Development Director for the Southeast Region for Varsity Brands, Inc., the leading cheerleading and dance company in the world. She is an active member of the UCA Rules Committee and is a Rules Judge for UCA College, High School and All-Star Cheerleading Championships as well as the Cheerleading All-Star Worlds and International Cheer Union World Championships in Orlando.

Hoskinson is a national coach certifier, speaker and representative at NCAA tournaments for the American Association of Cheerleading Coaches and Administrators (AACCA) and recently received her certification as a United States All Star Federation (USASF) Rules Judge.

PREVIEW 2014

The Spring Hill College Cheer & Dance teams begin their second season under head coach Kristin Hoskinson with more than 25 new members as well as a new level of excitement. Fans of the Badgers immediately noticed the improved festive atmosphere at "The Purple Palace" in the Arthur R. Outlaw Recreation Center during the 2012-13 season with the addition of the newly organized varsity programs.

For the Cheer squad, senior Jordan Truxillo of Mobile returns to lead the team along with junior Joel Cardenas of Long Beach, Miss. Sophomores Bryanna Biszewski from Chicago, Ill., and Caroline Avera of Baton Rouge, La., bring veteran experience back to a team that is eager to fire up the Badger faithful.

The newcomers include sophomore Julia Cieutat of St. Petersburg, Fla., who joins the squad after spending her freshman year with the Spring Hill softball team during its run to an NAIA National Runner-up finish. Fellow sophomore Margaret Dolph of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., has earned her spot of the roster for the season along with freshmen Brianna Jackson of New Orleans, La., Denise Pace of Mobile, Dustin Dearmon from Millry, Ala., Erin Anderson of Theodore, Ala., Jasmin Pizer of Baton Rouge, Jennifer Bonsutto of Medina, Ohio, John Joseph Delany of Mobile, Kaitlyn Abbott of Semmes, Ala., Cassandra Mutis from Miami, Fla., Katherine Sergiovani of Dallas, Texas, Mackenzie Hake of Madisonville, La., Maggie Star of Montgomery, Ala., Mary Armbruster from Nashville, Tenn., Morgan Lee of Grand Bay, Ala., Rebecca Marroquin from Hattiesburg, Miss., and Taylor Moss of Grand Bay.

The Dance team welcomes back senior Anna Newman of Ocean Springs, Miss., as the lone veteran performer on the roster, but still looks forward to a fun-filled season. Junior Julie Kressig of St. Louis, Mo., and sophomore Lillian Loys of Miami earned their way onto the team along with seven freshmen. The freshmen class includes Allison Steiner of Wichita, Kan., Ashley Cooper of Mobile, Darian Price of Carencro, La., Harper McNutt of Cullman, Ala., Mary Gafford of Mobile, Mary-Grace Pollet from Baton Rouge, La., and Torie Allsup of Mobile.

As two of the newest varsity sports at Spring Hill, the Cheer and Dance spirit squads as ready to bring excitement, pageantry and fun to Badger home basketball games as well as the campus in general.
