Head Coach
Frank Sims

Frank Sims begins his 20th full season with the Spring Hill College Badgers as the school's all-time winningest coach. His record of 537-479-3 at Spring Hill includes 16 20-win seasons, six 30-win seasons, two 40-win seasons and four Gulf Coast Athletic Conference championships. Spring Hill has also appeared in the NAIA Region Tournament four times, and Sims has been honored as GCAC Coach of the Year on four occasions.

Overall, Sims has posted a 589-489-3 mark in 21 seasons as a collegiate head coach. He gained the milestone 500th victory in the 2001 season.

In the last 15 years, Spring Hill has seen its greatest success on the diamond, posting nine 30-win seasons, including a school-best 40-15 mark in 1992, which culminated in a District-30 crown. The 1992 team also set 18 team, individual and conference records that year.

Fifty-six players have been named All-Gulf Coast Athletic Conference during Sims' tenure on "The Hill," including two-time NAIA All-American and Pittsburgh Pirate starting pitcher Blake Stein, and current Kansas City Royal farmhand Trae McGill.

Sims began his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater, Eastern Illinois University. After one season at EIU, Sims moved on to Sparta High School, in Illinois, where he served as head coach, in addition to assistant positions in both football and basketball. Sims posted a 44-18 record in three seasons on the diamond.

After his experience at Sparta, Sims returned to the collegiate ranks in 1980, serving two seasons as an assistant at Morehead State University. He later became the head baseball coach at Milton College, in 1983, where his squad finished 36-10, narrowly missing a berth into the NAIA World Series. Two seasons as an assistant coach at the University Wisconsin-Whitewater followed before he arrived at Spring Hill.

Sims is a member of the executive committee of the NAIA World Series where he serves as chairperson of the International Play committee. He was also an assistant coach for the Mobile Baysharks of the Texas-Louisiana Professional Baseball league for two seasons.

Last summer, Sims had the opportunity and honor to coach two U.S. select teams, traveling to the Czech Republic and Italy.

Sims earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Eastern Illinois in 1977, and his master's degree in H.P.E.R. from Morehead State in Kentucky in 1980. He and his wife, Dana, have four children: Drew, 20, Sarah, 17, Kelsey, 15, and Brian, 13.

Season Preview

2005 Season Preview

Spring Hill head coach Frank Sims begins his 20th full season on The Hill and is just 11 victories away from his 600th career coaching victory. Two returning All-Gulf Coast Athletic Conference players, Evan Lee and Jason Outlaw, along with a strong group of returning players will lead the 2005 Badgers into battle this season.

The schedule for the Badgers this season will provide an early challenge as they prepare for the tough GCAC competition. The season opens up with the Spring Hill-Mobile Kickoff Tournament with six of the nations top teams including defending NAIA National Champion Cumberland University.

Outlaw and Lee dominated opposing pitchers last season hitting .385 and .357, respectively. If runners were in scoring position and Lee was at bat, there was a very good chance he would bring them in. The Mobile native led the Badgers with 28 RBI on the season. The Badgers will look to five other seniors to provide leadership for the upcoming season.

All-GCAC Jason Outlaw

All-GCAC Evan Lee

Along with the strong senior class, the Badgers have a solid core of juniors led by Josh Coleman, Matt Rozelle and Jeremy Koen. Coleman led Spring Hill with a .412 batting average his freshman year and will be a solid weekend starter on the mound. Rozelle and Koen are both returning starters with quality experience that will show both in the clubhouse and in the classroom.

Sims brought in a stellar recruiting class featuring 11 freshman, many of which will get playing time this season. The Badgers also have six sophomore which will see the field this season.

GCAC/NAIA

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

The GCAC first made its appearance in 1981, with Belhaven, College of Jackson, Dillard, Xavier, Louisiana College, Spring Hill, Tougaloo, and William Carey as charter members. Since then, College of Jackson and Louisiana College have left, while Talladega College has come and gone. Also, Mobile joined in 1985, SUNO in 1995, and LSU-Shreveport in 2000. The GCAC then and now brought together schools with similar standards -- private four-year schools, in the Gulf Coast region, who play in the NAIA.

The GCAC holds conference championships in the sports of women's soccer, men's and women's cross-country, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, and men's golf.

In 2003-04, Spring Hill College brought home a conference championship in men's tennis and volleyball.

Throughout its history, the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has provided strong leadership for all aspects of intercollegiate sports. Since its introduction of intercollegiate championship basketball in 1937, the NAIA has maintained the highest standards while administering first-rate athletics programs.

The NAIA awards student-athletes with awards for academic achievements, awarding juniors and seniors with a 3.5GPA or higher. They give All-American awards for those athletes who excel in competition. The NAIA also recognizes student-athletes, coaches, and schools through the Champions of Character program. The goal of the Champions of Character program is to promote the true spirit of competition through five tenets: respect, integrity, responsibility, servant leadership, and sportsmanship.

There are currently more than 300 schools and more than 47,000 student-athletes competing in one of 13 NAIA regions and 30 NAIA sport conferences. Hundreds of NAIA students are recognized annually as All-American Scholar-Athletes, and thousands more are honored on the conference level. There are 23 NAIA national championships held every year in 13 sports, as well as championships held at the regional, sectional, and conference levels.

Spring Hill College President

Rev. Gregory F. Lucey, S.J.

Rev. Gregory F. Lucey, S.J. became Spring Hill College's 37th President on June 1, 1997, and from the beginning his leadership has made a significant impact on the College. With a Vision for the College on the Hill, Fr. Lucey has set into motion plans that have led to record enrollment, development and implementation of a comprehensive Campus Master Plan, and construction of a new library resource center that will not only benefit the Spring Hill community, but all of Mobile. In addition, Fr. Lucey is strengthening the college to be attractive for students and effective in achieving its mission by developing state-of-the-art learning spaces such as those in the newly renovated Quinlan Hall. He is also enhancing faculty development, providing better living spaces, restoring St. Josephs Chapel, and building the endowment.

Fr. Lucey often remarks that for alumni returning to Spring Hill, the campus experience takes on a new meaning as they see the transformation taking place. Under his guidance, the campus has seen the completion of a new 150-bed residence hall as well as parking and circulation changes designed to make the campus safer and more pedestrian friendly. The College also celebrated its first-ever night baseball games in Spring 2003 as lights were added to Galle Field.

Under Fr. Lucey's direction, Spring Hill College has enjoyed record fund-raising years, including record gifts totaling $13.5 million from alumnus and trustee Skip Viragh '68 (1941-2003). Fr. Lucey's goal is to enrich the Spring Hill Experience for every student while making the 174-year old institution a premier, small, residential, Catholic liberal arts college in the Jesuit tradition.

Prior to Spring Hill, Fr. Lucey served as President and Chairman of the Board of the National Jesuit Conference based in Washington, D.C. Additionally, Fr. Lucey served as rector for the Jesuit Community at Marquette University and Vice President for Development at Seattle University. He received a Ph.D. in educational administration from the University of Wisconsin at Madison, an M.A. in liturgy from the University of Notre Dame, as well as undergraduate and graduate degrees in philosophy from St. Louis University.

A Wisconsin native, Fr. Lucey entered the Society of Jesus in 1951 and was ordained in 1964. He founded and served as director of Marquette's Center for Ignatian Spirituality and in 1995 he attended the 34th General Congregation of the Society of Jesus as one of 200 delegates worldwide. He is a trustee of Loyola University, New Orleans and Marquette University.

Spring Hill College Director of Athletics & Recreation

Doug Mosley

Doug Mosley begins his first full season as Director of Athletics and Recreation for Spring Hill College. Mosley, who began his duties in December 2003, oversees all the day-to-day operations of the College's Department of Athletics and Recreation.

Mosley came to Spring Hill after serving as the Assistant Director of Athletic Development at Troy University. While at Troy, Mosley helped launch the Red Wave executive suites program at Movie Gallery Veterans Stadium and managed 27 suites for university boosters and fans. Prior to that, Mosley served as marketing and public relations manager for Comcast Sports Southeast (CSS) where he helped grow the company to become the nation's seventh-largest regional sports network.

As Director of Sports Information, Broadcasting and Technology for the NAIA from 1996 to 2000, Mosley planned and directed event publicity for 23 national championships annually, served as an association spokesperson, produced and syndicated NAIA events for national broadcast and launched the NAIA website. Mosley also has extensive experience at the international sports level, serving as the softball venue press chief during the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta, a representative for Kodak's photographer services at the 1998 Goodwill Games in New York and a USOC track and field press attache during the 1999 Pan Am Games in Winnipeg. He has also been active in the USOC's Olympic Public Relations Association (OPRA).

Mosley has more than 14 years of sports media and marketing experience and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). He was formerly a member of the board of directors for both the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and the NAIA Sports Information Directors Association (NAIA-SIDA). He's been a sports writer for the Pensacola News-Journal and the Leaf Chronicle (Clarksville, Tenn.) and was sports information director for Auburn University Montgomery from 1994-96.

Mosley earned his bachelor's in business administration and marketing from Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Mo., where he played varsity football and tennis. He's married to Stacy and has one son, Luke (2).

Stretch Your Mind

At Spring Hill, we will introduce you to academic subjects you've never seen before – and give the ones you thought you knew a deeper context and a new fascination. You'll be challenged by teachers and other students in a friendly classroom environment to develop a position based on critical thinking and synthesis, defend that position articulately, and write about it persuasively. Faculty will help you – one on one – to acquire depth and judgment. As you make connections between subjects, especially those in the core curriculum, you'll develop the intellectual agility necessary to succeed in a changing world.

A Solid Core

The core curriculum, based in the liberal arts and sciences, sets Spring Hill apart from other colleges. At 54-60 hours and 18-20 courses, it accounts for almost half of the graduation requirements. The core includes studies in English and literature, history, philosophy, theology, foreign language, social science, mathematics, computer science, laboratory science and fine arts. And because everyone who graduates from Spring Hill completes the core, you'll be in class with all kinds of diverse majors – not just people who are interested in the same things you are. It's an eye-opening experience.

Grow Your Spirit

In the spirit of St. Ignatius, who founded the Jesuit order in 1540, Campus Ministry programs involve each element – mind, body and spirit. When Spring Hill students do a street feed, for example, first they study the problem, examining statistics and discussing issues to see where the injustice lies. Then they go do the work, physically engaging with the homeless. Finally comes the reflection, prayer and spiritual growth. Other projects include Christmas on the Hill, Spring Break Immersion Trips, Urban Immersion weekends, and Habitat for Humanity.

Liturgies twice daily give the opportunity for the Spring Hill community to join in prayer. The school year opens with a Mass of the Holy Spirit each fall, and an Ecumenical Prayer Service is held at the beginning of each spring semester.

Feel at Home

The 450-acre Spring Hill campus is spectacular – to anyone who has entered from Dauphin Street and driven through an immaculate 18-hole golf course, or anyone who has strolled down the Avenue of the Oaks leading to the 150-year-old, white-columned Stewartfield House. It has 36 buildings, many of which are designated historic monuments. It's a park-like setting, perfect for jogging, golfing, dog-walking or just relaxing on a gorgeous Alabama day. The campus combines convenience with ambiance.

About 80% of our students – and 91% of our freshmen – live on campus in one of seven residence halls. Each room has Internet access, comes with a full cable package, and is air-conditioned, of course! But the most important part of the room, the floor, and the hall is the way students there nurture the friendships that influence you for the rest of your life. When you live together, you can take advantage of those spur-of-the-moment opportunities that turn out to be a blast. It's an experience, and an educational dimension, that you can't get at a commuter institution.

We offer four-year guaranteed housing in our residence halls and apartments, so you won't find yourself scrambling for off-campus accommodations. The suite-based Fairway Apartments, opened in 1996, offer convenience combined with sweeping golf course views. No surprise that it's the first choice of many juniors and seniors.

Viragh Hall, a three-story student residence completed in 2002, houses about 146 students in non-traditional suite-style living. Each six-to-eight-person suite consists of two-person bedrooms, a shared living room, two bathrooms and an outdoor patio. A kitchen area, computer room and lounge provide space for socializing.

A new student residence, set to open for the 2005 fall semester will accommodate 222 people in single and double rooms connected by a bath between each pair. The U-shaped complex features an interior courtyard, two 40-seat classrooms, study rooms and bright, airy public gathering spaces.

CITY OF MOBILE

Hit The Beach

It's what students like to do in their spare time. And thanks to great weather, they can do it year-round. Their top picks for best white-sand spots are Dauphin Island (30 minutes), Orange Beach (45 minutes) and Pensacola (75 minutes).

Going to Mardi Gras

Mobile had it first, way before New Orleans, and we still think it's best. With 25 or so parades and 30 balls, there's never a shortage of things to do in the weeks leading to lent.

Explore the City

Mobile is a winner of an All-America City Award, it's one of the five politest cities in the country, and it ranks well among best-places-to-live ratings. It's one of the nation's top-10 golf spots, and it's in Time's "Where the Jobs Are/15 of the Hottest Places." It has the charm of a small town with the economic advantages of a 500,000-persona metropolitan area.
